Technical Advisors

These are “subject matter” experts – organizations and individuals with specific knowledge about areas relevant to the plan. Many of them were involved in developing the existing Lancaster County Comprehensive Plan. They will evaluate the data collected for the plan and review strategies for awareness, education, and engagement.

These organizations are:

- American Lung Association of the Mid-Atlantic
- Building Industry Association of Lancaster County
- Discover Lancaster
- Economic Development Company of Lancaster County, PA
- Floyd Institute, Franklin & Marshall College
- Lancaster Chamber of Commerce & Industry
- Lancaster County Agricultural Preserve Board

- Lancaster County Community Foundation
- Lancaster County Emergency Management Agency
- Lancaster County Fire Chiefs Association
- Lancaster County Workforce Investment Board
- Lancaster General Health
- Lancaster Housing Opportunity Partnership
- Library System of Lancaster County
- Pennsylvania Department of Transportation

Government

Municipal governments and planning commissions will play an essential role in the process, as will school districts, local and regional authorities, state agencies, and elected officials. They will have opportunities to provide input at face-to-face meetings, regional forums, and other venues.

The General Public

The public will be involved in all stages of the planning process. Whether you live, work, or play here, we want your input about the future of our community. You’ll have opportunities to participate in public meetings, provide online input, and get your community or neighborhood involved in the process.

Steering Committee / Staff

LCPC members will serve as the steering committee, provide guidance and oversight, and make a recommendation to the Lancaster County Board of Commissioners regarding possible adoption of the plan. LCPC staff will prepare the plan.
